

Take this example, a simple Euro sign:

€

This works, because € is one of the few non-ASCII glyphs supported in PDF built-in fonts.

For full internationalized text support, we need to use external fonts:

ὔαλον φαγεῖν δύναμαι· τοῦτο οὔ με βλάπτει.

There you go.